The Columbus, Ohio, Evening Press called a meeting last evening for Friday to take action in behalf of the Cuban patriots in their struggle for freedom The Press also prints a very strong letter from Prof. C. B. Galbreath, state librarian, an intense Cuban sympathiz er, who has been in correspondence with the Cuban Junta of New York fo several weeks. Following are a few of the vigorous sentences used by Prof

Galbreath: 'For many months we have been confronted by an extraordinary condi-tion of affairs. Stripped of all subter iges and apologies these are nake facts. An American island and community, almost within sight of our shore, is dedicated to rapine and butchery. Day and night the carnival of slaughter goes on. Spain is the treacherous assassin and the govern ment of the United States is the chie accessory to the crime. One brief, just word from the president; one prompt patriotic act by congress would put top to this. That word remains un

"Our government virtually acknow-ledges the state of war there, but refuses to grant the patriots beliger-ent rights. Our mavy still does pelice duty for Spain and unlimbers its guns against the friends of freedom. Our republic has not courage to be just. Among the plain people are those who emulate the spirit of Lafayette and who are today eager to extend a help ing hand to those who fight with a esperate valor for the priceless boon of liberty."
